REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information

Clearing work was conducted in some portions of the woods which had been given to the farmers in Borkheide in connection with the land reform. Workers employed for clearing work and forest employees stated that the cleared areas were required in order to enlarge the former Borkheide airfield. Barracks which will house an additional 1000 men were allegedly to be constructed. 25X1

Comment. Similar information in regard to improvement work at the former German auxiliary airfield at Borkheide has been received from another reliable source. It is assumed that improvement work will actually be conducted, however there has been no information received as to the type or size of the project to be done.
